This anthology examines the role of NGOs in the treatment of drug addiction and the prevention of infectious diseases such as HIV, hepatitis and tuberculosis in Central Asia and China. Innovative methods and partnerships with state organisations are presented. The book deals with neuromodulation and digital therapies in China as well as the self-organisation of drug users in Germany. Furthermore, organisations and programmes in Kyrgyzstan and Uzbekistan such as AFEW, DOOR, INTILISH and the WINGS programme for the prevention of gender-based violence against women are presented. Alternative tuberculosis treatments in Kyrgyzstan are also discussed.

In Englisch

Der Sammelband beleuchtet die Rolle von NGOs in der Behandlung von Drogenabhängigkeit und der Prävention von Infektionskrankheiten wie HIV, Hepatitis und Tuberkulose in Zentralasien und China. Es werden innovative Methoden und Partnerschaften mit staatlichen Organisationen vorgestellt. Das Buch behandelt Neuromodulation und digitale Therapien in China sowie die Selbstorganisation von Drogenkonsumenten in Deutschland. Des Weiteren werden Organisationen und Programme in Kirgisistan und Usbekistan wie AFEW, DOOR, INTILISH und das WINGS-Programm zur Prävention von geschlechtsspezifischer Gewalt gegen Frauen vorgestellt. Zudem werden alternative Tuberkulosebehandlungen in Kirgisistan diskutiert.
